

Are you looking to
Be Even More Relevant to the Needs of Children?
Try Something New
Or perhaps you have a good initiative already but need some finance to take it to the next level?
If your answer is yes, then read on....

The 'Let the Children Live' - Funding Parish Initiatives are still available, with 10 grants available every quarter. The maximum grant is $600.

It is available for Methodist parishes, Rohe and Co-operating Ventures of which the Methodist Church is a partner. The project needs to support or enable the church's 10 year vision 'Let the Children Live' and be based within New Zealand. If you are successful, you will prepare a story of your initiative for publishing either in Touchstone or on the Methodist website. Be realistic in what you ask, yet be prepared to take some risks to engage in the vision together.

Send in your proposal today, with supporting photographs if possible and ideally no more than two sides of A4. Include your Parish name, your name and contact details and the Minutes of the Parish Council/Leaders meeting approving the initiative.

Send in your application today to: 'Let the Children Live' – Mission Resourcing, Private Bag 11-903, Ellerslie, Auckland 1542 or email:

Some possible questions to answer in your proposal:

- What project/initiative will the Let the Children Live funding support?
 - If a first time/new project, where has the idea for it arisen from?
- If an ongoing project/initiative, how long has it been going for and what have been some highlights to come from it in the past?
- In what ways might children or young people in your respective faith community benefit from this project?

Checklist before sending application:

- Correct parish details and key contact person information
- Clear information on what application is for (see questions above for guidance)
- Proof of approval of application noted in parish council minutes
(applications will not be accepted without this)

Checklist after successful application and project completion:

- Photos and brief report on the successful project provided (failure to do this may affect future application considerations)
